

NILUKA KARUNARATNE

Badminton

Niluka Karunaratne was born on 13 February 1985 is a Sri Lankan Olympic badminton player who has competed in London 2012 and Rio 2016 Games. He is considered as the number one premiere badminton player in Sri Lanka and Sri Lanka's most decorated badminton player with a record of 21 international medals including 9 gold medals.

Achievements

- ✓ The only Sri Lankan player to gain international recognition in the history of Badminton in Sri Lanka achieving a World Ranking of 34.
- ✓ Represented Sri Lanka in all leading championships since year 2000: Thomas Cup, Asian championship, World Championship, Asian Games, Sudirman Cup, Commonwealth

Games and Olympic Games.